0.3in. Jacqueline Lee Bouvier was born July 28, 1929, in Southampton, Long Island, New York. She enjoyed the country life with her parents and her younger sister Lee. In what became life-long interests, she developed an expertise at horseback riding, and enduring love of books, and a great delight in writing poetry. Jacqueline attended Miss Porters School in Farmington, Connecticut where she excelled academically. She was accepted at Vassar and attended for one year. She then studied in Paris, becoming fluent in French, before transferring to George Washington University in Washington, DC where she earned a degree in French literature in 1951. Following her graduation, Jacqueline took a job as the Inquiring Camera Girl for the Washington Times-Herald, and met then-Congressman, soon-to-be-Senator, John F. Kennedy, at a dinner party. They were married on September 12, 1953. Jacqueline Kennedy became, at 31, the century's youngest First Lady and from the moment of her magnificent debut at the Inauguration, captivated the Nation and the world. This book is a collection of Memorial Tributes in the One Hundred Third Congress of the...
