Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Protection of Cultural Resources Against the Hazards of War: A Preliminary Handbook The Committee on Conservation of Cultural Resources was established by the National Resources Planning Board in March 1941 to collect and disseminate information and promote measures for the protection of books, manuscripts, records, works of art, museum objects, historic buildings, scientific and scholarly apparatus, and other cultural resources against the hazards of war and to formulate long-range plans for the conservation and broadest and wisest use of cultural resources. It has also undertaken the specific function of preparing plans for the protection of materials of cultural, scientific, or historic importance in the possession of agencies of the Federal Government. In its relations with State, local, and private custodians of cultural materials, the Committee functions principally through State committees on conservation of cultural resources, which have been established in almost every State. The present handbook is based on a preliminary discussion of the conservation of cultural resources in time of war prepared by Richard H. Heindel, formerly Executive Secretary of the Committee on...
