Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Large Print. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Through this book, we will be discussing one of the most delicate yet prevalent topics; divorce and its aftermath. They say marriages are made in heaven; however, the fact remains that divorces happen on earth. Yes, one look around and you will realize that most marriages around us are crumbling under pressure. For most, the easiest way out is a divorce. Of course, it is not an easy decision to take for the couple involved. Nonetheless, it is best to accept the situation and move on; rather than being in a bad space. Unfortunately, things get tricky when there are kids involved. Whether we like it or not, the truth is, divorces are usually bitter and end up causing a lot of grief, anger, pain and hurt to everyone involved. This is not restricted just to the couple getting divorced. It also gets extended towards the kids, the immediate families and common friends. Once a couple gets divorced, the dynamics of every relationship around them changes. But like every other phase of life, getting separated or divorced is just another phase in your life and something that you should look forward to overcome. For that matter, don't look at divorce as the end of your life; rather look at it as a new beginning. A simple change in your attitude will help you get over the situation and embrace the new changes in life. You need to be equipped at such times, with the belief that things can and will get better. You need the confidence to not just handle yourself, but everyone else around you, who may have got affected by this situation. However,...
