Excerpt: . . . shown by a record attendance of around 1900, the largest in the history of the American Library Association. That the New Ocean House as convention headquarters was an equally happy choice was shown by the pleasure and comfort enjoyed by those attending. Loud praises were sung on every hand of the way in which the many plans made by the Massachusetts Library Club for the pleasure of the party moved along without a hitch. The Club has put librarians from all parts of the county greatly in its debt by this splendid demonstration of eastern hospitality at its best. May the Club grow and prosper! We are proud to report that 40 New Hampshire librarians and trustees, several of whom came from small towns, were at the meeting. Quite possibly others were present whose names we failed to get either because they did not register or because the registration desk was not able to give the record by states. From the time the conference was formally called to order by the president, Alice S. Tyler, director of Western Reserve Library School at Cleveland, until the gavel fell for adjournment on Saturday night, the program was full of good things. Space permits mention of only the high lights, which I think all would agree were the addresses on The poet and the prophet, by Dallas Lore Sharp of Boston University; Libraries and the nation, by Hon. H. M. Towner, M. C. from Iowa and father...
