The Handbook for School Kids: A Survival Guide for School and Life Through to Adulthood

By By Trevor Scott Andre

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . It's amazing how much kids go through growing up. Naturally many parents find it difficult to cope when their child is becoming troublesome or troubled with high school looming or having just begun. Fortunately help is at hand thanks to this cartooned true story based on the school diaries found in the Author's long forgotten buried treasure chest. This character building book covers a vast range of topics such as rejection, self esteem issues and cyber bullying. It looks at pertinent modern confrontations for children such as divorce, career parents, having one parent that works away and the all time classic sibling rivalry. The Handbook teaches the virtues of good sportsmanship and such simple yet often lost treat others the way you would like to be treated techniques as blending into a multiculturally diverse school with an odd name and accepting different races and religions in the same way you would visit different restaurants! Rent and mortgage burdened parents will welcome the subject covered in depth of how a child can help the family budget by using...
