Reviews

The book is great and fantastic. It is written in straightforward words and phrases rather than difficult to understand. You won't really feel monotony at any time of your respective time (that's what catalogues are for regarding should you question me).

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 228 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Why do quilters write? Why do writers quilt? Not all writers quilt, of course, just as not all quilters write. Some people write and quilt; some quilt and write. Why? Who? How? For the quilter who loves to read novels and the novelist who likes to quilt, what process is going on in their minds? Why? How? Where? What? These questions teased us to find answers. We drew up essential questions to ask quilters and writers. We asked them to define the point at which the two activities intersect and what do they have in common? And why do they do what they do? So far no book has answered these questions. This book attempts to explain WHO and WHY writers and quilters use the same process in creating their individual work. We hope to find a connection between the two arts by identifying the questions and then by identifying the artists who answer them. The process we followed in the construction of this book was guided by the basic question of why do writers and quilters use the same process of creativity. We used the four-square pattern of quilting to divide the writing into four sections or blocks or chapters. Within the book you will see various writing styles - everything from the informal and personal to the academic and lyrical - because different styles appeal to different people. It is a testimony to the love of beauty that so many different types of creative people choose quilting and/or writing as their means of expression. The order of the chapter/blocks of the four-square pattern begins with the quilters and writers themselves - the WHO. Who are the writers...
