If some turn out to be but chaff, which the wind catcheth and driveth away, the value of the wheat remaining is not lessened. We, who pay due homage only to his great name, should not be surprised to find some of his views to be untenable; were it otherwise, he would not have been a man; he must have been a god! The Witnesses And The Evidence.--If the authority fail us, we have yet the mass of evidence, which wc are told has been accumulating from year to year for the potential efficacy of the preparations in question in the examination of this evidence I must beg...
